Laura Winslow is the Marketing Manager. Davide Dukcevich is the Sales Manager. Joe Markey is the Purchasing Manager.

Identify the person who decided on behalf of Defendant, and all persons who assisted or participated in Defendant's decision, to adopt as a trademark each of the following: GRAN PREMIO, PRESIDENT'S RESERVE 400, PRESIDENT'S, DELI-CUT-O, and RISERVA.

ANSWER NO. 4

Vlado Dukcevich and Stefano Dukcevich.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5

Identify all persons who have advised Defendant on the use or registration of any trademark or other designation on prosciutto or other meat products since January 1, 2003 and, for each such person, describe the advice provided and identify all documents in which the advice is contained, descried or discussed.

ANSWER NO. 5

Defendant objects to Interrogatory No. 5 on the grounds it seeks information that is protected by the attorney-client privilege pertaining to advice given by defendant's counsel to defendant relative to the use and registration of trademarks on prosciutto. Defendant further objects on the grounds that it is burdensome to identify each document which may contain advice of counsel as the information is privileged and cannot be disclosed. Defendant will identify the attorneys who assisted the defendant in providing legal advice relative to the adoption and registration of trademarks for its line of prosciutto. The attorneys were I. Stephen Samuels, Esq., Samuels & Hiebert, LLC, Two International Place, 23rd Floor, Boston, MA 02110, Michael J. Bevilacqua, Esq., Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP, 60 State Street, Boston, MA 02109 and Girard R. Visconti, Esq., 55 Dorrance Street, Providence, Rhode Island 02903.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6

Identify all facts and documents that you contend show that any of the following is a trademark or would be recognized by purchasers as a trademark: GRAN PREMIO, PRESIDENT'S RESERVE 400, PRESIDENT'S, DELI-CUT-O, and RISERVA.

ANSWER NO. 6

Defendant objects to providing plaintiff with its legal research and case law as this is protected by the work product doctrine. Without waiving said objection, see the applications submitted to the United States Trademark Office which have already been provided as an exhibit to the dispositive motion that was filed. The United States Trademark Office has not rejected any of the applications as being applications for names that do not function as trademarks. For a complete status of the trademark applications, see the website: http://tarr.uspto.gov/. The application numbers are as follows:

DELI-CUT-O, 77163430

GRAN PREMIO, 77163396

PRESIDENT'S, 77163346

PRESIDENT'S RESERVE 400, 77163366

RISERVA, 77163450

Deli-Cut-O was issued a trademark registration on January 22, 2008. Reg. No. 3,371,881.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7

Identify all facts and documents that you contend support your interpretation of paragraph 5 of the Settlement Agreement of March 2005.

ANSWER NO. 7

Defendant objects to providing facts obtained from defendant's counsel as the information was exchanged between counsel with no third parties present and was sought for the purpose of seeking legal advice, and as such the information is privileged. Defendant further objects to providing information obtained from legal research as the information is work product. Without waiving said objection, the five names chosen are not descriptive or generic and are valid trademarks. To date, the Trademark Office has determined that all the five terms qualify as trademarks. The names were not rejected by the United States Trademark Office as being generic or merely descriptive. The factual determinations made by the trademark examiner are entitled to deference. The current status of the trademark applications to date can be found on the website identified in answer to interrogatory number 6.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8

Identify all documents concerning the use or proposed use of any of the following as designations for prosciutto produced by Defendant, whether or not as trademarks: GRAN PREMIO, PRESIDENT'S RESERVE 400, PRESIDENT'S, DELI-CUT-O, and RISERVA.

ANSWER NO. 8

Defendant objects to Interrogatory No. 8 to the extent it encompasses communications between defendant's counsel and defendant relative to the five trademarks and legal advice given relative to the five trademarks. Defendant also objects to providing confidential, proprietary and trade secret information. Without waiving said objection, non-privileged documents would be the 2004 brochure of which plaintiff already has a copy; the 2007 brochure being produced in response to plaintiff's request for production, and the website which can be accessed at www.danielefoods.com. Representative samples of the labels have already been provided to plaintiff. See also, defendant's response to plaintiff's request for production.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9

Identify any and all persons who participated in, or assisted Defendant in, the negotiation of the Settlement Agreement of August 2003 or the Settlement Agreement of March 2005 between Plaintiff and Defendant.

ANSWER NO. 9

When Vlado Dukcevich arrived in Italy for vacation, he was presented with the August, 2003 Settlement Agreement that was drafted by the Consorzio's attorneys. Vlado Dukcevich did not have the assistance of counsel when the agreement was signed. The March 25, 2005 Settlement Agreement was negotiated between the Consorzio's legal counsel and defendant's legal counsel of Girard R. Visconti, Esq. and I. Stephen Samuels, Esq. The principals from Daniele, Inc. who reviewed the terms of the 2005 Settlement Agreement were Stefano Dukcevich and Vlado Dukcevich.

ANSWER NO. 12

INTERROGATORY NO. 15

Identify all persons whom Defendant intends to call as witnesses in this proceeding, and in each case indicate whether the person is a fact witness or expert witness.

ANSWER NO. 15

We expect to call Vlado Dukcevich and Stefano Dukcevich as witnesses at trial but no firm decision has been made at this juncture as to who will be witnesses at trial. Defendant will supplement this response once a decision has been made.

INTERROGATORY NO. 17

Identify all persons who have given you, your attorney or any person, firm or corporation acting in your behalf, statements, voice recordings, reports or memoranda in any way concerning the claims and defenses alleged in the Complaint and Answer, the date of each such statement, voice recordings, reports or memoranda and identify the person who now has possession of same.

INTERROGATORY NO. 20

Identify all persons who have been responsible for Defendant's compliance with the Settlement Agreement of March 2005 between Plaintiff and Defendant, and describe the responsibilities of each in this regard.

ANSWER NO. 20

Defendant objects to Interrogatory No. 20 to the extent it seeks any information exchanged between Daniele and its attorneys relative to interpretation of the Settlement Agreement, counsel's assertion of the duties and responsibilities under the Settlement Agreement as such information is privileged and protected by the attorney-client privilege. Without waiving said objection, the individuals from Daniele who were responsible for compliance with the Settlement Agreement dated March of 2005 are as follows: The design for the labels and websites was Paul Beaulieu from Media Concepts Corporation, and Laura Winslow, Marketing Manager, reviewed the materials along with Stefano Dukcevich, who approved of the changes in conjunction with consultation with Daniele, Inc.'s attorney, I. Stephen Samuels. The orders for the design changes were made by Joe Markey and the labels and prosciutto bags were printed by G.S. Inc. and Packall Packaging, Inc. Labels were also printed by SpectraGraphics and Printpack, Inc. Michael C. Verdirame was also a graphic designer for the website. It is unknown if website changes made by Michael C. Verdirame pertained to the Settlement Agreement. The website changes were reviewed by Davide Dukcevich.

ANSWER NO. 21

The Daniele trademark was replaced with five (5) trademarks for prosciutto as already identified. The Daniele trademark application was amended to delete "prosciutto" from its identification of goods, and five (5) trademarks were adopted for the sale of prosciutto as already identified. For the sale of prosciutto, Daniele International, Inc., was changed to the fictitious name of Daniele, Inc. Daniele, Inc. has changed its brochure to comply with the name, lettering requirements and size as set forth in paragraph 6 of the Settlement Agreement. Daniele, Inc. changed its labels for prosciutto and the packaging bags for prosciutto to comply with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, specifically, paragraphs 2, 5, 6, 7, and 10. Daniele, Inc. changed its brochure and website to comply with sections 8 and 9 of the agreement. Daniele, Inc. has complied with each and every paragraph of the Settlement Agreement. INTERROGATORY NO. 23
